HOWDY DUTY BY SONJA BROOM

The following article is taken from an article written by Harriet A. Daf-fron, Wife. Iowa ARNG (Army National Guard). It expresses the feeling of all wives of Guard members. It certainly echoes my feelings. This year the Aurora Veteran's Salute focused on the Military family. When I attended, all of my senses were heightened. It was very emotional for all that attended. The experience for me was one of Patriotism, Thankfulness, and Love of my country.

"I am a Guard Wife and I am proud. In peace, I work beside my civilian soldier to build a better world. I put aside the annoyances of drill weekends and camp periods - for I know that these make him the bone and sinew of our country's defenses. I know he is learning the skills and discipline that make him ready in emergencies. When he protects others from dangers, preserves the peace, or gives comfort and aid in a disaster, I understand and give him my support. For that has always been my job, nurturer and healer."
